1 Overview

The Aras Innovator 2024 Release has specific differences that will affect the software used differently than if the Subscriber releases of Aras Innovator are used. This document illustrates these key differences with some notes related to going live with Aras Innovator in a production environment.

2 Users and License Limits

2.1 License Limits

This release of Aras Innovator limits users to 50. The number of users measures this count with logins enabled.

The screenshot shows the user profile for 'Innovator Admin'. The 'Lagon Enabled' checkbox is checked and circled in red. The 'Starting Page' field is also visible.

Login Name	First Name	Last Name	Company Name
admin	Innovator	Admin
Password	Email	Telephone	Mail Stop
Confirm Password	Fax	Home Phone	Picture
Lagon Enabled <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Cell	Pager
Starting Page	Employee #	Manager
Default Vault	Working Directory
Default	C:

If the number of enabled user logins exceeds 50, the system displays an error upon login, and only the Aras Innovator Admin user can log in until the excess users have their logins disabled.

2.1.1 Innovator Admin

The Aras Innovator Admin is the system's default administrative user. Normally, this user would be disabled in a Subscriber instance. However, the Aras Innovator 2024 Release requires this user for login maintenance. Ensure the password on this user is changed before putting the system in production and that this login stays enabled.

2.1.2 Super User

The Super User is a debug user for the out-of-the-box installation. This user should be disabled in a production instance. It is recommended that the Super User be disabled unless specifically using this user in a non-production instance.

2.1.3 Other Users

The remaining out-of-the-box users are tied to specific functionality and should follow documented guidelines for disabling logins or changing passwords. For example, the installation guide recommends changing the password on the Vault Admin, but additional vault configuration is required to update the credentials in the web service.
